Withholding of Salaries and Allowances

(1) The payment of salaries and allowances of Members of Parliament, including Members of Cabinet and the President, may be withheld if the Member has been suspended from the House.

- (2) The withholding of salaries and allowances may only be done through a simple majority vote of Members of Parliament, excluding any Member who has been temporarily suspended.
- (3) Once a Member's suspension is lifted, the suspension of payment of salaries and allowances that the Member is entitled to is also lifted.
- (4) The House may also, through a simple majority vote, elect to pay to the Member any salaries and allowances withheld during the Member's period of suspension.
