

STATUTORY RULES.

No. 11 of 1918.

Made under the Papuan Antiquities Ordinance, 1913 (No. XIV. of 1913).

1. These Regulations may be cited as the "Papuan Antiquities Regulations, 1918."
2. All Regulations heretofore made under the Ordinance are hereby repealed.
3. In these Regulations unless the contrary intention appears the term—
"Commissioner" means the Commissioner for Native Affairs and Control;
"Government Purchase Officer" means a person authorized under the Ordinance to receive offers for sale of any Papuan antiquity and to receive applications for permission to export any Papuan antiquity, and includes the Commissioner;
"The Ordinance" means the Papuan Antiquities Ordinance, 1913.
"Papuan Antiquities" has the meaning assigned to it by the Ordinance;
4. The articles set out in the First Schedule hereto shall be deemed to be Papuan antiquities within the meaning of section 2, paragraph (b) of the Ordinance.
5. When any person shall under the provisions of section 4 of the Ordinance offer Papuan antiquities for sale to a Government purchase officer he shall do so in writing, setting out each article offered in terms sufficient to identify them and specifying the price at which each article is offered for sale.
6. Every person desirous of removing any Papuan antiquity from the Territory shall apply to the Commissioner for permission to do so, and every such application shall be in the form No. 1 of the second Schedule hereto, and shall describe each article sufficiently to identify it to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, and shall state the date when such articles were offered for sale to a Government purchase officer.
7. The Commissioner if he grants permission for such removal shall do so in the form of the permit No. 2 of the second Schedule hereto.
8. If any European officer of police, Customs officer, or Government purchase officer has reason to believe that any person is about to remove any Papuan antiquity from the Territory contrary to the provisions of the Ordinance any such officer may seize and take possession of such Papuan antiquity, and may hold the same until the decision of the Commissioner be obtained.
9. If the right to seize or detain any such Papuan antiquity be disputed by the person from whom the same shall have been taken, or by the owner or claimant, such person, owner, or claimant shall at once serve written notice upon the officer making such seizure that it is desired to have the dispute settled by the Commissioner.
10. The Commissioner shall thereupon make such arrangements for hearing such dispute and notifying the parties concerned as to him seem fit. The decision of the Commissioner shall be final.

11. If any person obstructs, assaults, or resists any European officer of police, Customs officer, or Government purchase officer in the exercise or performance of his duties under the said Ordinance or these Regulations such person shall be liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding Ten pounds.

Made in Executive Council this sixteenth day of September one thousand nine hundred and eighteen.
