(1) In this section, “transfer” of a member to a position means the appointment of a member to a position in which the member will hold the same rank and be entitled to at least the same level of salary.

(2) A decision to transfer or promote a member to a vacancy in the Regular Constabulary Branch shall be made by fair and equitable procedures that—

- (a) include when possible inviting applications and selection on the basis of the merit of applicants; and
- (b) prevent unjust discrimination, whether in favour of or against a person; and
- (c) allow at all times to the Commissioner the discretion to transfer any member to any location where the exigencies of the Service so require.

(3) Where the Commissioner makes an order directing the transfer of a member of the Force to other duties not involving a reduction in pay, the member will comply with the order.

(4) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), where a decision is made to transfer a member or promote a member under Section 41, the provisions of Subsection (2)(a) do not apply.

(5) Notice to a member of a transfer of that member shall be given in writing and allow a reasonable time to him to arrange his personal affairs before the permanent date of the transfer takes effect.

(6) For the purposes of this Part, merit of a member comprises—

- (a) the integrity, diligence and good conduct of the member; and
- (b) the potential of the member to discharge the duties of the position in question; and
- (c) the industry shown by the member in performance of the duties of office in the course of the member’s career; and
- (d) the physical and mental fitness of the member to perform the duties of the position in question.

(7) For the purpose of determining the potential of a member to discharge the duties of a position, the following factors shall be taken into account:—

- (a) the performance of duties of office in the course of the member’s career;
- (b) the range of practical experience of the member in the Force or outside the Force;

- (c) the ability, aptitude, skill, knowledge and experience determined by the Commissioner to be necessary for the proper performance of the duties of the position in question;
- (d) any relevant academic, professional or trade qualifications of the member.

(8) In the selection of a member of the Regular Constabulary Branch for promotion, consideration shall be given to the merit of the persons considered for selection and in the event of equality of merit between two or more members, to the relative seniority of such members.

(9) For the purposes of determining merit, the Commissioner may require a member to submit to a psychological assessment to be carried out by a person whom the Commissioner considers to be suitably qualified.

(6) Where a Deputy Commissioner is removed from his post under one or more of the grounds referred to in Subsection (5), that removal shall, unless the Commissioner with the consent of the National Executive Council otherwise directs, automatically terminate that person's membership in the Force.

(7) Subject to Subsection (8), where a Deputy Commissioner who is a person who made an election in accordance with Section 7(2) of the Public Officers Superannuation Fund Act 1990 (whether or not the appointment to the post was made before or after the commencement of this Act) is required by any condition of or pertaining to his appointment to contribute to a superannuation fund operated under the Public Officers Superannuation Fund Act 1990, neither that condition nor the participation in that fund extinguishes the entitlement of that person to the benefits provided under Section 109 of the Police Force Act (Chapter 65).

(8) Subsection (7) does not apply, or, as the case may be, ceases to apply in any case where adequate benefits are offered to and accepted by the appointee to compensate for the extinguishment of the entitlement.

62. INTERVALS.

- (a) 12 months commencing on the date of his last appointment to the Force; or
- (b) 12 months commencing on the date upon which his last entitlement to recreation leave accrued, as the case may be.

63. ORDER OF GRANTING RECREATION LEAVE.

64. EXTENSION OF TIME OF ACCRUAL.

(2) The extension referred to in Subsection (1) is an extension by one day for every day during which the member has been absent from duty during the period.

65. PRO RATA LEAVE, ETC.

(1) Where a member of the Regular Constabulary Branch ceases to be a member of that Branch otherwise than by death, the Commissioner may authorize the payment of pay in lieu of recreation leave, in respect of recreation leave to which that member was entitled immediately before he ceased to be a member.

(2) Where during a period of recreation leave a member of the Regular Constabulary Branch ceases to be a member of the Branch, the Commissioner may revoke the grant as from the date on which the member ceases to be a member and authorize the payment of pay in lieu of the recreation leave for the residue of the period for which it was granted.

(3) Where—

- (a) a member of the Regular Constabulary Branch dies; or
- (b) the Commissioner, after consideration of all the circumstances, directs that the death of a member of the Regular Constabulary Branch be presumed, the Commissioner may authorize payment to the member's dependants of pay in lieu of any period of recreation leave to which the member was entitled immediately before his death.

(4) Except as provided in Subsection (5), for the purposes of this section a member of the Regular Constabulary Branch shall be credited in respect of any period of service in relation to which entitlement to recreation leave had not as yet accrued, with pro rata recreation leave, calculated to the nearest completed month of that period of service.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply to a member of the Regular Constabulary Branch who ceases to be a member of that Branch—

- (a) by dismissal for a disciplinary offence, or
- (b) because the services of that member are dispensed with under Section 43 whether or not application for leave has been made by the member.

66. WHEN RECREATION LEAVE TO BE TAKEN.

(1) For the purposes of this section, “year”, in relation to any leave, means a period of 12 months commencing on the date the entitlement to that leave accrues.

(2) Whenever practicable, the Commissioner shall, at the request of the member, cause such arrangements to be made as will ensure that each member of the Regular Constabulary Branch may be granted recreation leave in each year.

(3) Unless the Commissioner otherwise directs, recreation leave shall be taken in the year in which it accrues or in the year following the year in which it accrues.

(4) Where in the opinion of the Commissioner the needs of the Force are such that the recreation leave of any member should be deferred the Commissioner may direct that the recreation leave to which that member is entitled shall be deferred for such time as the Commissioner may then or subsequently determine.

(5) Subject to Subsections (7) and (8), where any recreation leave is not taken within two years of the date on which that leave accrued, or within such later time as Subsection (6) requires, the member's entitlement to that leave lapses.

(6) Where recreation leave is deferred by the Commissioner acting under Subsection (4), the period of deferment shall not be taken into account in calculating for the purposes of Subsection (5) the period of two years referred to in that subsection.

(7) Where the Commissioner is satisfied that special circumstances exist the Commissioner may, conditionally or unconditionally by written direction, reinstate any leave entitlement which has lapsed under Subsection (5).

(8) Where Section 68(15) applies to a member, the Commissioner shall reinstate any leave entitlement which has lapsed under Subsection (5), subject to the condition that the leave shall be taken at a time fixed by the Commissioner, being a time at which leave fares are available to be paid.

67. EXCESS LEAVE.

(1) Where in the opinion of the Commissioner special circumstances exist, and it meets the convenience of the Force so to do, the Commissioner may grant to a member recreation leave in excess of any amount to which he has become entitled.

(2) Where a member is granted or takes recreation leave in excess of his entitlement, that excess leave shall be—

- (a) in due course deducted from the member's recreational leave which next accrues; or
- (b) treated as leave without pay.

Division 9.

Leave Fares.

68. PAYMENT OF LEAVE FARES.

(1) Subject to this section, the Commissioner shall authorize payment of the cost of the fares of a member of the Regular Constabulary Branch and of the member's family (if any) travelling on approved recreation leave, for the specific purpose of enabling the member to spend the major portion of the leave in his home Subdistrict or the home Subdistrict of his spouse.

(2) Fares under this section shall be granted to a member of the Regular Constabulary Branch—

- (a) in the case of leave in his home Subdistrict—for travel between the station at which the member was employed immediately before commencing recreation leave and the administrative headquarters of the member's home Subdistrict, and for return travel to that station or to any new station at which the member is thereupon to serve; and

- (b) in the case of leave in the home Subdistrict of the member's spouse—for travel between the station at which the member was employed immediately before commencing recreation leave and the administrative headquarters of the home Subdistrict of the member's spouse, and for return travel to that station or to any new station at which the member is thereupon to serve, but in no case shall the amount authorized exceed the cost of the fares referred to in Paragraph (a).

(3) Subject to Subsections (4), (7) and (8), entitlements to leave fares accrue to a member of the Regular Constabulary Branch at intervals of two years or thereabouts, the entitlement first accruing on the date upon which the member's second entitlement to recreation leave accrues, and subsequent entitlements accrue upon the date of accrual of each alternate entitlement to recreation leave.

(4) The date ascertained under Subsection (3) in respect to any member is in this section referred to as the relevant date.

(5) A member of the Regular Constabulary Branch who is entitled to leave fares under this section shall make written application in such manner and at such time as the Commissioner directs.

(6) Notwithstanding Subsection (3), the Commissioner has the discretion, on application by a member of the Regular Constabulary Branch, to authorize the granting or payment of leave fares at any time before the relevant date where, because of the death of an immediate member of the member's family or other acceptable grounds, the Commissioner thinks that the application should be granted.

(7) Notwithstanding the period of two years prescribed by Subsection (3) for entitlement to fares, but subject to Subsection (8), the Commissioner has the discretion, on application by a member of the Regular Constabulary Branch, to authorize the payment of fares after the member has served for a continuous period of one year commencing on and from the relevant date.

(8) Where the granting of payment of fares after one year's service is authorized under Subsection (7), the Commissioner shall authorize payment of half the total cost of fares which would have been payable had Subsection (3) applied.

(9) A payment of leave fares under Subsection (6) or (7) shall be in substitution for any entitlement to leave fares which would otherwise have accrued after the expiry of two years from the relevant date.

(10) Subject to Subsection (11), payment of fares under this section shall be made only with respect to travel by the most direct route unless otherwise authorized by the Commissioner for reasons of economy, and travel shall be by public transport (other than by taxi).

(11) Leave fares shall be calculated on the cost of surface transport, unless—

- (a) travel by air is more economical than surface transport; or

- (b) in the reasonably held opinion of the Commissioner no suitable and convenient surface transport is available to the member at the time the member intends to travel.

(12) The State may provide transport, in place of payment of fares, for the whole or any part of the journey to and from the administrative headquarters of the home Subdistrict of a member of the Regular Constabulary Branch or of the home Subdistrict of the member's spouse.

(13) Where leave fares paid under this section are used for any purpose, other than a purpose authorized by this section, the member to whom they are paid commits a disciplinary offence, and shall repay the fares so provided by way of salary deduction, cash payment, or from accumulated entitlements.

(14) Subject to Subsections (6), (7), and (16), and unless the Commissioner otherwise directs, leave fares under this section may be granted only in respect of leave to be taken before the expiry of 12 months from the relevant entitlements.

(15) Subsection (14) does not apply where a member makes application within six months from the relevant date for leave fares to be granted before the expiry of 12 months from the relevant date, and those fares are not granted, or where granted are not paid, before the expiry of 12 months from the relevant date.

(16) Leave fares shall be paid at or about the time they are to be used for the purpose for which they are intended.

(17) A married member of the Regular Constabulary Branch who is the spouse of a member of the Branch or of an officer of the Public Service is entitled to leave fares as a member of the Force but is not entitled to leave fares in his capacity as the spouse of a member of the Force or of an officer of the Public Service.

(18) No member is entitled to leave fares where that member is, at the date upon which the leave fares would otherwise have accrued, stationed in his own home Subdistrict.

69. TRAVELLING TIME.

(1) The Commissioner may grant to a member of the Regular Constabulary Branch in respect of whom the payment of fares has been authorized under Section 68 such travelling time, not exceeding seven days, as he thinks reasonable.
